SUE REEVE Sun Media

Yanga Interactive is headed by Francis Yanga, a Dutch native raised in Aruba who came to Canada six years ago. He set up the Web and graphic design firm in Niagara Region, relocating to London about a year ago.

His firm offers one-stop shopping for Web design, with services including hosting and domain registration, content writing, flash animation, e-commerce, search engine optimization, newsletter distribution, company e-mails, traffic monitoring and website maintenance. Goals include expansion internationally and into audio and video production.
